forex trading advice with “cable” (the Pound)!

So coming into tomorrow's session, what we have here is a very nice pattern that we can trade. What that means is going short below the low here, and going long above the high there; that pegs the long trade at 5023, the short trade at 4946 or so. On these autopilot trades, I'm a little bit more inclined to take an autopilot trade on the top, simply because on the day we bought, we have these two areas of resistance.-> this guys forextrading tell me exactly when to get in and get out! <-.

Man: Blasted telemarketers. Doesn't it just get your goat when somebody calls and they say, “Hi, I'm so-and-so from such-and-such. How are you doing today?” I was doing just fine before you called me. All right. Anyway. laughs Actually, I only get that way when I'm in the middle of my videos.-> this guys forextrading tell me exactly when to get in and get out! <-.

If the market breaks above there, you're probably going to get a pop, whereas if you get a break below the lows here - or rather, if you get a break below the low here, you've got a lot of places that the market can start. And so in terms of the overall counter trend, the long trade, I think is the better bet for the autopilot in particular.-> this guys forex trading system tell me exactly when to get in and get out! <-.

And that's why they employ traders like me, because they would tell guys like me, hey, this is what we need to do, drive the pound up above 5000, and then I want you to sell it under 4720, period. And so that has nothing to do with fundamentals, economics, the price of tea in China.-> this guys Forex trading tell me exactly when to get in and get out! <-.

The British pound was in a very narrow range today. What we have had come out of this whole thing is a very nice pennant pattern here that's formed, basically, in the open of the European session all the way through the New York session today.-> this guys forex trading secrets tell me exactly when to get in and get out! <-.

So, let's back up a little bit. We are in a broader sense here still in this bottoming process, which means we are in counter trend territory. You can see here that we had our three tops along this trading line here and the market appears like it's stalling out. If it does stall out here, then we're going to be expecting the market coming back down to this lower trend line; if I can get moving averages on there. There we go.-> this guys forextrading tell me exactly when to get in and get out! <-.
